

Specialty Awards

First, we have our specialty awards, which recognize debaters' leadership, character and contributions to our community outside of winning and losing in competition.

Our Outstanding Adjudicator Award recognizes a judge selected by students for being helpful and encouraging.

First, clap for a coach who was nominated twice, Mr. Variano from Morgan Park.

And your winner, coming up to receive a gift card, described by the students as being "honest and fun," Anesia Bolling from Chicago State University and Hubbard High School.

Our Shout Out Award is when debaters nominate other debaters that impressed them with their sportsmanship and character.

First, clap for a nominee: Victor from Acero Soto.

Your winner, coming up to receive a gift card, was described as "determined and tactical." Congratulations to our Shout Out Award winner, Aminata from Gary Comer College Prep.

Our Ethos Award is awarded by coaches who nominate their students for their leadership in and out of rounds within their debate teams.

First, clap for our nominees:

Ismael from Curie, Juan from Curie, Nashawna from Morgan Park, Omar from Hubbard, and Kyle from CVS (Kyle was nominated twice!)

Our winner was described by their coaches as being "inquisitive, persistent, and determined to make an effort." Congratulations to our Ethos Award winner, Yulissa from Goode STEM.

And finally, our Robin Williams Award is awarded by judges who nominate the debaters who impressed them the most during their rounds.

First, clap for our nominees: Jaelen and Josiah from Harlan.

And your winner, coming up to receive a gift card, was described by a judge as being "receptive and persistent." Congratulations to our Robin Williams Award winner, Kaleb from CVS!
